Wake up excited to enjoy some delicious options in this beautiful village.
From a perfect breakfast burrito to a New Mexico twist on eggs Benedict, Ruidoso has you covered.

HALO

You may have never heard of this one, and it’s because they just opened toward the end of 2018! Although new, they are already making a name for themselves as a local favorite with made-to-order breakfast and lunch and several Keto-friendly food and drink options (including Keto Coffee!). Also, they offer CBD that can be added to any drink!

We suggest: Breakfast Burrito
Pair with: Dirty Chai - a chai latte with a shot of espresso!
To go: New Mexico roasted bagged coffee or anything from their New Mexico-sourced gift shop!

CORNERSTONE BAKERY

This staple has been a part of Ruidoso for 20 years as of this year! You will have a hard time deciding between all of the yummy baked goods in the case, but don’t worry, you can grab a box of pastries or bag of bread (or both!) to go on your way out.

We suggest: Cuba Southwest Eggs Benedict! Think traditional eggs Benedict, topped with pulled pork, hollandaise and New Mexico red chile combo.
Pair with: Pinon Coffee at the self-serve coffee station!
To go: Fresh, sliced Green Chile Cheddar Bread (insert drooling face emoji here.)

PENA’S PLACE

This quaint, little local spot is the perfect breakfast place for a peaceful, great meal. Traditional breakfast with a Mexican flare. So. Good.

We suggest: Juevos Rancheros
Pair with: A cup of joc.
To go: A beautiful piece of handmade wooden furniture or decor crafted by the owner!
Some of our favorite lunch spots just so happen to be in Midtown, which makes them perfect to stop by during a busy day of shopping! Here are a few top lunch picks...

THE VILLAGE BUTTERY

Voted “Best Lunch in Lincoln County” many times, The Village Buttery is always a favorite. They offer soups, sandwiches, salads, quiche, hot specials, and baked goods all made fresh daily!

We suggest: Chicken Salad Sandwich (but you really can’t go wrong!)

Pair with: Tropical Jasmine Iced Tea

To go: Grannie Guthrie’s Buttermilk Pie

TINA’S CAFE

Tina’s recently moved closer to Midtown at the corner of Sudderth and Mechem. If you have a craving for something local, go here! This cafe is New Mexican style food and they do it just right.

We suggest: It’s a tie. The Green Chile Chicken Tamales OR the Puff Pastry.

Pair with: Lavender Lemonade - made with fresh brewed lavender flowers in-house!

To go: Green Chile Apple Pie

CAFE RIO

If you have been to Midtown in Ruidoso this place probably needs no introduction. It is a hole-in-the-wall gem of a pizza place, and FUN FACT... don’t ask for ranch - you won’t need it! Because of its size there is often a wait, but let us tell you... It is SO worth it!

We suggest: The Connoisseur Pizza - Fresh ricotta, chopped garlic, red onions, and Italian sausage with a parmesan cheese crust. Simple, yet delicious.

Pair with: Iced Cream Soda - Vanilla, Strawberry, Chocolate or Cherry!

To go: A Par-Cooked, Bake-at-Home pizza (Cause who doesn’t want pizza multiple times on one vacation?!)
DINNER

After a long day of sightseeing or adventure seeking, we have some great ideas for places to dine and unwind.

WENDELL’S STEAK & SEAFOOD

If you are looking for an upscale date night, Wendell’s will not disappoint. With fresh seafood, aged steaks, creative desserts, and a fantastic wine list all of your desires will be met. This restaurant is inside Inn of the Mountain Gods Resort & Casino, therefore there are plenty of options for before and after dinner activities!

We suggest: Mescalero Tortilla Soup

Pair with: Caliente Cucumber Martini - Vodka Infused with Jalapeño in-house, Effen Cucumber Vodka garnished with a slice of cucumber and a salted rim

To go: New York Style Cheesecake

CATTLE BARON

This is a more casual dining experience with some excellent options. They have something for everyone on their menu from steak and chicken to pasta, seafood and even burgers! However, they are known for their fresh, extensive salad bar!

We suggest: The Salad Bar with Chicken

Pair with: Peach or Raspberry Iced Tea

To go: Green Chile Stew - Great to reheat for dinner!

VINNY AND VALS

This spot is in Midtown and perfect after a long day of shopping! They have great pizza, pasta, and salads. The atmosphere is open and inviting with cozy booths along 2 walls.

We suggest: Green Chile Chicken Alfredo

Pair with: Something from their great beer and wine selection.

To go: One of their homemade desserts.

BONUS!: Wanting something a little more casual? Anaheim Jacks has some unique burgers and a great beer selection!
DESSERT

Let us help you satiate that sweet tooth. Ruidoso knows just how to fulfill all your cravings!

SACRED GROUNDS COFFEE & TEA HOUSE

Many locals choose this place as a hangout. In addition to being a local favorite coffee and tea house, they also have breakfast, lunch, and dinner, freshly made desserts (including house-made gelato!), live music, and one of the best views of Rio Ruidoso from their massive three-story deck out back.

We suggest: Your favorite flavor of gelato!
Pair with: Cappuccino
To go: A Sacred Grounds handmade mug

BUFFETT’S CANDIES

If you have a sweet tooth and want a truly authentic experience try this little candy store. They make all of their candy fresh with only the best ingredients! Their motto is “Our candy is made to eat—not to keep!” This is due to not using preservatives in any of their creations, but let’s be honest... you won’t be able to keep these too long anyway! They are just too good.

We suggest: Piñon Rolls - a favorite that has been featured on Travel Channel’s Delicious Destinations.
Pair with: Piñon Brittle. (We’re serious about the Piñons)
To go: More candy. Everyone likes a sweet souvenir.

SABOR

Right off of the main drag in Midtown, Sabor has everything from amazing caramel apples to blue bell ice cream to fresh fudge.

We suggest: Made-to-order caramel apples with whatever toppings your heart desires!
Pair with: An icee
To go: Fresh jarred jams or fruity butters!

If you’re planning on a night (or day) out on the town, here are some of our favorite drinks in the area to lift your “spirits”.

PUMPKIN FLIP
Described as pumpkin pie in a glass, this is essentially a pumpkin pie flavored martini, but it’s so much more. This nostalgic drink indulges your sense of smell, taste, and sight. The good news is it’s not a seasonal drink, it’s offered year round! It’s a cold, spice drink topped with whipped cream, a pumpkin wafer, and toasted cinnamon. You can get this drink at Glencoe Distillery. You can also enjoy Glencoe’s distilled cocktails at Sacred Grounds Coffee and Tea House.

FUN FACT: When you buy a bottle of any of their spirits they will give you the recipe for one of their handcrafted drinks included!

LOCAL TIP
Did we mention Lyft is available in Ruidoso? Get home safe.
BIG LEGS RED
This red wine has a playful nose with a hint of the enticing spice to come. A smooth fruity start and a medium body builds into a robust taste. This is one of the favorites at Noisy Water Winery. You can enjoy Noisy Water wines at many restaurants around Ruidoso, but we definitely suggest one of their tasting rooms on Sudderth - The Cellar Uncorked or Noisy Water Winery.

SO GOOD WE COULDN’T PICK JUST ONE...
- Coyote Call - An American wheat ale
- Rye Knot - Belgian Rye Pale, complex from the start
- Connectivity IPA - Modestly hopped India Pale Ale
- Ruidoso Blonde - Balanced beer brewed with Pilsen malt and mildly hopped

All of these brews can be enjoyed at one of the awesome weekly events held at Lost Hiker Brewing Company in Ruidoso Downs.

CASA MARGARITA
Not your average margarita. This specialty staple at Casa Blanca Restaurant on Mechem has a sour citrus bite that unveils a sweet, salty middle with agave and floral notes. Casa Blanca has amazing Mexican food and this sassy drink kicks your experience off right.

RIO GRANDE IPA
A good hoppy mixture that makes for a well rounded IPA. This beer has strong grapefruit and pine flavors with a hint of pepper. Rio Grande Grill and Tap Room has great food and is owned by the couple that established Sierra Blanca Brewing Company and thus serves up all of their local brews on tap (including this one!).

Many artists find the fertile Hondo valley along Highway 70 irresistible. It’s rich in history and scenery. Peter Hurd often painted its iconic skies and hillsides.

Halfway between Old Lincoln and the Tunstall Ranch is the Whiskey Trail. Undoubtedly, Billy the Kid and the Regulators would stop over there, in San Patricio, NM.

The Hurd-La Rinconada Gallery is nestled beside a retired polo field behind St. Jude Mission. It’s part of the Hurd’s Sentinel Ranch. Peter and Henriette Wyeth fell in love with this land and its people and pieced the 2000+ acres together during their lifetime.

Their son, Michael Hurd manages ranch operations and continues painting in the family tradition.

“Henriette was known for capturing the beauty of flowers before they would wilt and die... and she did as you can see... she kept them alive,” says gallery director, Shelly Buffalo Calf.

Like his dad, Michael Hurd is also a land conservationist. They used to ride horseback together. They spent hours exploring plant species, their uses, and historic places.

The family’s love for this environment is obvious. The ranch still provides endless subjects in still life, landscapes, and portraits.

The property also boasts 5 charming, adobe guest homes (most over 100 years old) that are available to rent year round. The property is just over 30 minutes from Ruidoso and only a few minutes from Glencoe Distillery and Hondo Iris Farm.

Plans are in motion to begin an orchard and vineyard near The La Rinconada Gallery. A wine tasting facility will open soon in conjunction with the Noisy Water Winery in Ruidoso.

Ashley Martin is the agricultural project manager. “We hope people will enjoy spending some time here. There are some beautiful places where people can take a picnic and a bottle of wine, and get to enjoy the property.”

The brothers play mandolin and guitar and share vocals with Miles. Since 2014, the band has been tearing it up at bars and beer festivals in New Mexico and West Texas.

“We just wanna entertain fans, and engage them in live shows guaranteed to make you stomp your feet!” says Tyler.

The band has morphed from traditional bluegrass to what they call New Mexico Trashgrass.

With Ruidoso’s Rich Cagle and Montrose Records, Jones & Miles will release Jackrabbit, their first full-length studio album, this summer.

“If you’re looking for foot-stompin’, good-timin’ music from the deep roots of the Ruidoso mountains... have these guys got a show for you!”

Jones and Miles is a four-piece Americana, bluegrass, traditional Irish, blues and punk rockin’ machine.

Chris Miles, on bass, and Donny Marling on drums and percussion provide good soil for this hard drivin’ combo.

Tyler and Cody Jones form the living legacy of their dad, Randy Jones. His career includes the Flying J Wranglers and even the Moonpie Dance Band in Midtown’s notorious Buckaroo Lounge back in the day.

WHEN CAMPING

- Carry EPA registered bear pepper spray when hiking and camping in bear country.
- Set up cooking, eating, and supply areas at least 100 yards from your sleeping area.
- Keep sleeping bags and tents completely free of food, beverages, and odorous items.
- Use bear resistant food containers, where available or required, to store food and odorous items when not in use.
- Do not sleep in the clothes you cook or handle fish and game in. The odors may attract wildlife.
